Born—to Dr and Mrs Gray of Red Deer on Tuesday, Nov 7, a daughter.

Lost an Old Friend

We regret to announce that Miss Mildred Hayward has resigned her position on the staff of the Bowden News owing to the removal of the Hayward family to Olds.

She has been connected with the paper for over two years a length of service equalled by none who has served on the News staff.

Miss Hayward has ever been conscientious and painstaking in the discharge of her duties. Her deep wellfare in the paper has made her departure a great loss; but we wish her every success in whatever new sphere she may be engaged.

Miss Gladys Lowe has taken on the duties formerly performed by Miss Hayward.

Uses Only Cuticura Soap for Prize Baby

"I have always used Cuticura Soap and no other for my baby, and he has never had a sore of any kind. He does not even chafe as most babies do. I feel that it is all owing to Cuticura Soap for he is fine and healthy, and when five months old won a prize in a baby contest. It makes my heart ache to go into so many homes and see a sweet faced baby with the whole top of its head a solid mass of scurf, caused by the use of poor soap. I always recommend Cuticura, and nine times out of ten the next time I see the mother she says 'Oh! I am so glad you told me of Cuticura.'" (Signed) Mrs. G. A. Selby, Redondo Beach, Calif.

Although Cuticura Soap is sold by druggists and dealers everywhere, a postal to "Cuticura," Dept. 3M, Boston, U.S.A., will secure a liberal sample, with 32-p. book on the care of skin, scalp and hair.

THE BEST REMEDY

For Women—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Belleville, Ont.—"I was so weak and worn out from a female weakness that I concluded to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I took several bottles of it, and I gained strength so rapidly that it seemed to make a new woman of me. I can do as good a day's work as I ever did. I sincerely bless the day that I made up my mind to take your medicine for female weakness, and I am exceedingly grateful to you for your kind letters, as I certainly profited by them. I give you permission to publish this any time you wish."—Mrs. ALBERT WICKETT, Belleville, Ontario, Canada.

Women everywhere should remember that there is no other remedy known to medicine that will cure female weakness and so successfully carry women through the Change of Life as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from native roots and herbs.

For 30 years it has been curing women from the worst forms of female ills—inflammation, ulceration, displacements, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, and nervous prostration.

If you want special advice write for it to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass. It is free and always helpful.

A MOTHER'S PRAISE OF BABY'S OWN TABLETS

Mrs. B. S. Baker, East Margaretville, N. S., writes: "No mother would recommend for her baby any medicine of which she was not absolutely sure. A baby's life is too precious. A mother is always pleased to recommend to other mothers something that has been valuable in restoring the health of her own child. That is why I can highly recommend Baby's Own Tablets. They cured my baby who was suffering from constipation, and I feel that I cannot praise them enough. I would advise all mothers with sickly babies to give them a trial, well knowing what the result will be." The Tablets are sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from The Dr. Williams Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Valuable Water-Power

It is stated that the Canadian Pacific Railway has secured a valuable water-power in British Columbia, which it will utilize in the near future for transportation purposes. The water-power secured is on the Adams River, which flows out of Adams Lake and into the South Thompson river, near the west end of Shuswap Lake. Reports have reported that it is capable of developing 100,000 h.p., at two points between Adams Lake and its confluence with the South Thompson. The Canadian Pacific Railway, it is stated, has in view the generation of power for the electrification of a portion of its lines through the mountains. This step will not be taken for some years yet, of course, but the railway has secured the power with an eye to the future.

Our Scholars' Essays

Read an Interesting Autumn Landscape Paper

Before the debating society on Friday afternoon Master C A Roulston read a most interesting paper on "Newspapers".

He began his address by outlining the history of newspapers. He accredited Egypt with the probable first paper owing to the fact of dyes of a remote age having been recently discovered. China, however, has the oldest acknowledged newspaper in the world—King Chau—The Imperial Gazette, which was issued in 202 B.C. Leaving the Far East he gave the following newspapers as they were introduced into Europe, Frankfurter Journal 1615; Tienve Tijdinghen, Antwerp, Belgium 1616; Weekly News, London 1622; Gazette de France, France 1631.

The oldest Canadian newspapers were given as 1. The Quebec Gazette 1723; 2. Montreal Gazette; 3. Gazette and Oracle; 4. La Canadian, the first French paper 1806; 5. Upper Canada Guardian of Toronto; 6. News of Kingston. The speaker commented on the cost of the papers in former days, and how their dearthness militated against popular reading. He described the old custom of reading the newspapers in barbers' shops and taverns.

The form of the paper—the Leader, the important home and foreign news; the financial and commercial markets, the wants and sales advertisements; the district news; the sporting news, the ladies' columns; general advertisements was dealt with.

The speaker in quite an eloquent manner, told of the great power of press, both as an educator and guide of public opinion, and gave appropriate examples. While admitting of the educative and useful side of newspapers, he acknowledged the possibility of tyranny of an associated press-combine, which he exemplified by reference to the Hearst combine.

Master Roulston during the reading of the paper had several neat historical and informative stories to relate.

The Debating Society

A meeting of the debating society was held on Friday afternoon. Master Harvey Walton was in the chair.

Before the paper was started the school song was sung.

The minutes of the last meeting were read by Miss Marjorie Shenfield and duly signed by the chairman. The subject of the paper was "Newspapers" given by Master Charles Roulston.

Mr Armitstead praised the excellent paper. Before the meeting closed the pupils sang "God Save the King" and gave their school cry.

Islands of opal float about in a blue sea. Pennants of silver stream and wave and lazy banners unfurl. The air is filled with charm. Peace seems to reign on earth, whose restlessness seems consoled for a moment.

The suns throbbing, thrilling flame floods the earth with golden light shedding radiant joy all around.

All sounds in harmony blend—voices of children at play; the crowing of cocks in the farm yard; the cooing of the pigeons; the lowing of the cows; the notes of the birds the chattering of the squirrels, and the rustling of the leaves in the trees are subdued and low as the murmur of love. All is joy and a spirit of happiness abounds

A Wintry Day

R. Wilson

Standard III

One winter day as I was driving along the road which was very rough the snow and sleet came whistling through the air. The horses did not like to go against the storm. They wanted to turn back and go home. The trees were covered with white coats of snow. The lake had its frosty covering of ice. And some people were sweeping the snow from the ice so as to get a skating rink. Others were skating round where the ice was clear. As you get near town you can hear the hoarse whistle of the trains, and the jingle of the bells on the horses as they go running by.

A cold winter has set in and it will be a long time before we see the green fields again

Favorite of the West

No home in this Western country can well afford to be without "The Family Herald and Weekly Star," of Montreal. It is particularly useful in Western homes. The information it gives to the new settlers, and old settlers as well, is worth hundreds of dollars a year. It is simply marvellous the amount of good instructive matter that paper contains each week. It well deserves its success. One dollar cannot be better invested in Western homes than by ordering that great paper. A beautiful premium picture entitled "Home Again" is also included, and it is well worth the dollar alone.

JOINING THE ARMY

Opportunities That Are Open to the Enlisted Man.

HIS PAY AND HIS PROSPECTS.

Even as a Private He Can Run His Salary Up to $35 a Month, and as a "Noncom" He Can Double That and In Time Retire Rich and Pensioned.

There are many opportunities open to the man who enlists in the United States army and wears the uniform of Uncle Sam with honor to himself and his country. The pay is good, the food is good, and the chances for advancement are numerous. It is up to the individual man himself to make good and to take advantage of the situation.

Writing in the Columbian Magazine on army affairs, Edward Marshall in discussing the status of the enlisted man says:

Summarized, this is what a man who thinks of marching for, his Uncle Samuel as an enlisted man has to consider:

On first enlistment the soldier for Old Glory nowadays gets $15 a month, far better pay, for instance, than the average clerk's, for board, lodging and clothing are furnished by the government. If he qualifies as marksman he adds $2 to his pay; if as a sharpshooter he gets $3 in addition; if as an expert rifleman a full third more. Thus he may at once get $20 monthly cash and found if he is able and keeps busy.

If he enlists as a musician he gets $21 monthly to start off with, the highest "rookie's" pay. In the signal corps, the hospital corps and the engineers' corps first class privates get $18 monthly, and second class privates get $15.

Upon enlistment every man is allowed $83.70 for his uniforms, etc., and afterward $13.54 twice annually. At least one-half the men save money on their clothing allowance, which is more than ample. Privates' pay increases $3 a month for each three year enlistment. An expert rifleman who never gets to be a petty officer, therefore, can run his pay up, with good conduct and intelligence, to $35 a month and all his necessities "found" in five enlistments covering fifteen years.

Noncommissioned officers are taken from the ranks on recommendation of their company or troop commanders and are often given their posts upon their first enlistments. These men are really well paid. A sergeant major is allotted to each regiment. He receives $45 monthly when he is appointed and $4 additional per month each time he re-enlists. Regimental commissary sergeants, regimental quartermaster's sergeants and the three battalion sergeants in each regiment get the same high pay. Each company has a first sergeant at $45, with an increase of $4 upon re-enlistments; a second sergeant at $38, with $3 increase for each re-enlistment; a corporal at $18, with $3 each for re-enlistments. The government acts as banker for the soldiers, too, if they desire to have it, and noncommissioned officers have left the service with as much as $20,000 saved—not one, but many. If he sticks tight to the service for full thirty years a noncommissioned officer is entitled to retirement on pay ranging from one-half to three-quarters of his service pay. Seventy dollars monthly is not unusual pay for a "noncom" to retire on. And every year of service seen outside the United States counts as two years at a home post. A man, therefore, after fifteen years of service in the islands may retire on his half pay.

The food the "noncoms" and the other enlisted men are given is wholesome and well cooked, the medical attendance free and able, post and garrison schools have been provided at all posts for the primary branches, and at several posts trade schools have been established. A worthy man, no matter where he may be stationed, is almost certain to get transfer to a "school post" if he asks for it. Cooking, baking, blacksmithing, veterinary surgery, electrical and stationary engineering, all are taught at these trade schools, as well as many other things. Thus a boy who has had little chance to get an education may, after he has joined the army, get a very good one.

There seems to be but one thing which army life does not offer to the enlisted man. But that one thing is home.

In its degree indeed the life of the enlisted man now offers more inducements than the life of the West Pointer. The commissioned officer's pay is small when his expenses and the effort he must make to get commissioned are considered, and, furthermore, the noncommissioned officer is not so subject to political influences as the West Pointer, who gives him his commands.

Oysters as Rat Traps.

Catching rats with oyster shells is the unique method employed by some pearlers round about Broome, Western Australia. They leave a large oyster on the floor of the cabin at night. It opens for a breath of fresh air, and the smell of fresh meat attracts the rats. When the rodent thinks he'll try a little supper, the oyster suddenly decides that he doesn't like fresh air. Next morning the shell is pried open and the dead rat thrown overboard.

Bamboo in China and Japan.

For centuries the Japanese and Chinese have raised the bamboo as a practical crop. The natives of tropical India and the Malay archipelago would be at a loss without it, as they depend upon it not only for their chief building material, but for ropes, mats, kitchen utensils, etc.

A Wearisome Walk.

At Sheffield, England, in 1850, Richard Manks walked 1,000 miles in 1,000 hours, commencing each mile at the beginning of each hour. He was completely exhausted at the expiration of the task, and for a time it was thought that he would die, but he finally recovered his strength.

Illuminating a City.

Emperor Constantine early in the fourth century caused the whole city of Constantinople to be illuminated on Easter eve with lamps and wax candles.

A POLYDOT PERSON.

Dramatist Louis N. Parker Can Claim Several Countries as His Own.

Mr. Louis N. Parker, who arranged the procession in connection with the Shakespeare ball at the Royal Albert Hall, recently, is a man of varied talents. His father was an American, his mother an Englishwoman, he was born in France, his first language was Italian, and he was educated in Germany.

Mr. Parker first came as a student at the Royal Academy of Music in London, and while studying music became an ardent first-nighter at theatre and opera. Of his many friends in those days was Sir Herbert Tree.

"I remember one famous first night," says Mr. Parker, "at the Lyceum when we stood before the pit entrance from ten in the morning in order to see Irving as Iago, Booth as Othello, and Ellen Terry as Desdemona. The crush was terrific, and just before opening time an old gentleman immediately in front of me fainted. As there was no other way of getting him out, we hauled him over the people's heads."

But Mr. Parker did not waste his time at the Royal Academy of Music. Shortly after leaving, he was made Director of Music at Sherborne School. Here he got through an enormous amount of musical composition, and he was also responsible for the erection of a "model theatre" on the site of a barn.

It was in this little theatre that Mr. Parker's first play was performed. It was called "A Buried Talent," and had quite a romantic interest. Mr. Parker had given the manuscript to a local man to be printed.

The late Norman Leslie one day entered the printer's little shop, saw the play, took it to his lodgings, and then found the author, with whom he made arrangements for its immediate production. Mr. Leslie, however, disappeared, and for long nothing further was heard of "A Buried Talent," until one day Mr. Parker received a letter from Mr. Ben Greet offering to produce it.

Our First Theater.

America's first theater was opened at Williamsburg, Va., on Sept. 5, 1752. New York city's first playhouse was in Nassau street, where performances began in 1753.

An Oversight.

"I trust you slept comfortably and had everything you needed," said Sandy Macpherson's hostess one cold morning last winter.

"Ay, well enough," replied her guest, a venerable Scot, "but I didn't see the gaid of you bottle in the bed."

"Why, wasn't the water hot?" the hostess asked in surprise.

"Verra hot," responded Macpherson, "but ye forgot to put anything in it."

ONE SINGLE PILL GAVE GREAT RELIEF

FOUR BOXES CURED HIM

Plessisville, Que.

"I suffered from Kidney Trouble for several years, and tried numerous remedies and doctor's prescriptions without permanent relief, my case being chronic. After seeing about Gin Pills, and as it is a well known fact that Juniper without alcohol is excellent for the kidneys I decided to try Gin Pills. One single pill gave me great relief. I have now taken almost four boxes of Gin Pills and find myself completely cured. No more bad humor—increased in weight—clear eyes—fresh color—more strength and vigor. This is what Gin Pills have done for me."

FIFTY DOLLARS REWARD

Is still offered for the young man William Eddleson, of weak intellect, age 29 years, height about 5 feet 9 inches, dark complexion, with whiskers and moustache, and small mouth, who left his home on June 1, 1911. Any information leading to his discovery will be thankfully received by his anxious parents at 67 Manitoba Avenue, Winnipeg.

Never Said It

"I hear you have been saying you would take great delight in attending my funeral."

"I have never said anything of the kind."

"I think I should prefer to believe the man who told me."

"Very well, believe him if you like, but I never said it. I should not think of permitting myself to be seen at your funeral."—Chicago Record-Herald.

How is it that a widow, bowed in grief at the funeral, and seeing no one, can tell after it is over who was there?

Man never gets over it. I know a widow who is seventy, if he is a day, and as ugly a man as there is in the world. The other day someone spoke to him about "paying attention" to an old widow. And the old man didn't do a thing but grin in an idiotic way, indicating that he was guilty! When I pass sixty, if a man speaks to me of love, I'll knock him down.

When a girl stops crying over petty annoyances and begins to think, it's an unfailing sign that she no longer celebrates her birthday anniversaries.

How effective a worthless man usually is in politics! But let a really good man get into it, and he is so helpless as to be pitiful.

GOLD IN RED DEER RIVER

RICH STRIKE OF GOLD MADE IN RIVER BED JUST BELOW TOWN

Rush of Prospectors to Stake Claims—Pains Average 30 Cents—It Is Believed That Auriferous Deposits Have Been Washed Down Tail Creek—Excitement Prevails All Along the River.

Calgary.—Gold placers on the Red Deer river, a rush of prospectors, to stake claims in the river valley; much excitement in the town of Conquest; these make up the story which Hugh Smith, real estate dealer of Calgary, brought down from the north recently. He stayed just long enough to tell his story and transact some absolutely necessary business, then he headed once more for Red Deer.

Who were the discoverers of this mine? Mr. Smith did not state. But he said that in the washing of two pans of gravel slightly over a dollar's worth of gold had been secured. Some of the pieces were about a third the size of a pea.

The discovery was made on a bar in the river just below the town of Conquest, at the junction of Tail Creek with the Red Deer.

The spot is, as the crow flies, just over 100 miles north-east of Calgary. The river for nearly a hundred miles above this point falls an average of twenty feet to the mile, that is from 4,300 feet at the crossing of the Stony Park Trail, to 2,300 feet at the junction with Tail Creek. This means that there is a terrific current throughout this hundred miles, and according to Mr. Smith, that gold from some vein in the hills washed down the stream, has no chance to settle, and must therefore come all the way down. But gold is heavy. Hence it follows that it will settle at the first opportunity, and he holds that the first real opportunity is at this point where the discovery was made a week ago.

How much gold there is in the new find, whether like after the manner of the placiferous find on the Red Deer some twenty miles below the town of Red Deer, which caused much excitement eight years ago, this find will prove of no value, he refused to hazard a guess. All that he would say was that many were staking claims, and that the land almost back to the bluffs, on either side of the river is already staked.

The placers seem rich, according to Mr. Smith's account, but he will not commit himself to any definite statement as to their extent, or possible value.

BUY FARM MACHINERY DIRECT

Mr. Freeman, Secretary of United Farmers' Association, Goes to See Manufacturers

Calgary.—Mr. E. J. Freeman, secretary of the United Farmers of Alberta, left recently for manufacturing centres in Illinois and it is said that his mission was to see to it with an effort to bring farm machinery direct for members of the U. F. A. It is hoped if arrangements can be made to buy wholesale and give the farmers the machinery at a price which will not include middlemen's profits. Those approached on the matter refuse to talk but it is true that some such move is on foot, and if it works out as he hoped the venture will have considerable effect on the implement business in the province. The farmer would get machinery at factory prices plus freight and duty. The money paid the implement agent would be saved and that it is claimed, would total a tidy amount. Until Mr. Freeman returns it is impossible to get details as to other officials say he is the only man with authority to talk for publication.

SHAREHOLDERS OBJECT TO PAY

Victims of the Extinct Farmers' Bank File Their Defences

Toronto, Ont.—Five hundred and ten shareholders who were victims of the Farmers' bank crash have through Tom Lawlor, K.C., their Toronto agent, filed their defences against the claims of the liquidator to have them placed on the list of contributors.

The jurisdiction of Mr. Macdougall to determine whether they are attached and they claim that any deposits or money loaned to the bank should be set off against their liability if any. Altogether over 415 defences have been filed with Mr. Macdougall, but no date has been set for hearing of the argument. If the government at Ottawa does not see fit to grant the commission an application will probably be made to the courts in connection with the disputed jurisdiction of Mr. Macdougall.

THRESHING WELL UNDER WAY

No Doubt But It Will Be Finished Before the Winter

Winnipeg.—Any impression that winter would be upon the west before the threshing was half completed may be set at rest, for threshing is drawing to an end.

Reports show that in Manitoba the wheat has yielded from nine to thirty-two bushels to the acre. The average is about twenty-two bushels to the acre. The heaviest yield comes from northern Manitoba, and the lightest from the south. Eighty per cent. of the crops threshed and fifty per cent. of it marketed. The weather is fine, and the wheat is grading well. Fifty per cent. of the total is better than No. 4 northern, and 50 per cent. No. 2 or better. Some fifty per cent. of the districts heard from complain of shortage of cut and lack of storage room in elevators. There has been no lack of labor to handle the crop.

In Saskatchewan great progress in threshing has been made in the past week, and about sixty per cent. of the wheat is done. About thirty per cent. of the Saskatchewan crop is marketed. The bulk of the grain is grading below No. 4 northern, and the yield of wheat varies from eight bushels to thirty-four bushels to the acre. The average yield seems to be about twenty-two. Thirty-five per cent. of the places heard from complain of shortage of cut and full elevators. The labor supply is short, and in twenty per cent. of the cases, but not seriously so.

In Alberta yields are averaging high, but threshing is backward. About thirty per cent. is done, and little grain has been marketed. Cuts are on the short side, and labor has been lacking, but there has been no serious inconvenience from any cause. The cut crop throughout all three of the prairie provinces has been a remarkable one. Barley has also yielded well. Flax in many districts has been a splendid crop, but in about sixty per cent. of the cases have suffered badly from frost. Less than one week will see threshing completed in Manitoba, two weeks will bring it to an end in Saskatchewan and Alberta.

A STRANGE ACCIDENT

Dr. Pitt, of Curman, Probably Fell Asleep on Auto—Had Beaten Up All Night

Curman, Man.—The funeral of Dr. Wm. Pitt, who met with a fatal accident, was held on Thursday last.

R. Evans was driving home from town when immediately north of James Atkins' farm he saw the doctor's disabled auto on the road and the doctor beside it, as if making repairs. Mr. Evans spoke to the doctor, but received no reply and upon examination found he was dead.

Just how the accident happened will probably never be known, as no one saw the accident, but it is thought that the doctor was travelling along at a rapid rate and that he struck a rut in the road or a tire blew out. The car would appear to have turned over twice, and was right side up when found with the engine still running, the hind wheels, seat, and the steering wheel were crunched off and the car badly wrecked.

Drs. Cunningham and McGavin were telephoned for but found Dr. Pitt's car in a living condition that death was instantaneous. Dr. Cunningham was in conversation with Dr. Pitt a few minutes before he started on his fatal trip, and the latter complained of feeling tired, stating he had been out in Rosedale all the previous night. It is possible he may have fallen asleep and lost control of the car.

Dr. Pitt was graduated from Trinity medical college in April, 1897, and has been practicing for the past thirteen years in Curman. He leaves a wife and two little daughters. He was a member of the C.O.F., I.O.F.W., and the A.F. and A.M., the latter taking charge of the funeral. His brother, Dr. Wesley Pitt, of Gravelly, will take up his practice.

WILL ADVERTISE MEDICINE HAT

Citizens of Gas Town Secure $40,000 for Publicity Campaign

Medicine Hat, Alta.—It is a wonderfully enthusiastic mass meeting of the citizens of Medicine Hat, which was held recently, one of the most stupendous publicity campaigns ever inaugurated on the continent was set on foot. The sum of $40,000 was actually pledged to be expended in advertising the cheap power possessed by the city in its great natural gas resources.

Of the sum thus raised individual citizens contributed $20,000, and by a unanimous vote, the city council was authorized to subscribe an equal amount.

It is the intention to secure the services of the best publicity agents in the country and to spend no expense in calling the attention of capital to the advantages which the city possesses as an industrial centre for the west.

ALBERTA'S CLOSE WIN

OKLAHOMA STRONGEST COMPETITOR AT CONGRESS

Representatives from Great Britain, Germany, France, India, Austria and all the Leading Agricultural Countries of the World Were Present at the Dry Farming Congress Recently Held at Colorado Springs.

Calgary.—E. L. Richardson, who had charge of the Alberta exhibit at the Dry Farming Congress at Colorado Springs, is very much elated over the success which the exhibit from this province met with at the exhibition.

The state of Oklahoma was Alberta's strongest competitor, and the result of the judging was very close, Alberta winning out by only 19 points. It will be seen from the figures given below that in every department in which the province of Alberta made exhibits of the staple products of the country, it easily outdistanced its competitors. Alberta does not as yet pretend to be a corn producing country, nor yet to produce such things as "Kaffir" and "Milo," but may some time in the future. Leaving out these two features Alberta won out by over 200 points.

Judge's Score

	Alta.	Okla.
Wheat	100	37
Cuts	100	36
Barley and flax	100	32
Kaffir and milo	0	100
Grasses	100	71
Forage, including alfalfa	100	75
Vegetables	100	40
Miscellaneous and fruit	25	100
Display	100	75
Total	725	706

Mr. Richardson is very much elated over the fact that the 1912 dry farming congress is coming to Alberta and will be held in Lethbridge.

At the congress in Colorado Springs there were representatives from Great Britain, Germany, France, India, Russia, Austria and all the other leading agricultural countries of the world.

He anticipates a larger representation at the 1912 convention in Lethbridge than has ever attended a similar convention in its history.

The advertising that this province will receive from the holding of such a convention cannot be estimated, and every effort should be made to see that all delegates have every opportunity of investigating the resources of the country.

It is assumed that the governments of the western Canada provinces will co-operate in the matter.

HARMSWORTH VISITS CALGARY

Thinks This is the City for Young Men Who Want to Make Good

Calgary.—"Calgary is the city and Alberta the province for a man, young or old, to come to if he wants to make good," was the terse comment on this subject, made recently by E. Harmsworth, of London, Eng., when interviewed at the Alberta hotel by a News Telegram reporter.

Mr. Harmsworth is director of the firm of Waygood & Co., of London, makers of lifts and cranes, and is visiting western Canada on a combined business and pleasure trip. He has come to Alberta several years ago to engage in farming, and according to Harmsworth, he has been particularly successful.

This visitor has had numerous amusing experiences since arriving in Canada several weeks ago because of the similarity of his name to that of the brother of Alfred Harmsworth, the famous English newspaper publisher.

In Montreal, Toronto, Ottawa and Winnipeg, he says, he has been interviewed by newspapermen, and has been the recipient of telegrams, telephone calls and mail addressed for Sir Harold Harmsworth. Sir Harold visited Calgary about six weeks ago and a number of people who saw E. Harmsworth's name in the Alberta register believed that he had returned.

BRIDGEEND IS MODEL VILLAGE

Company Erecting Comfortable Cottages With Wide Streets and Modern Conveniences

Lethbridge.—Bridgeend, the new town site recently applied for by the owners of Lethbridge collieries, will soon be one of the most active of the little mining villages springing up about Lethbridge. So says Chas. Fergus, general manager of the Lethbridge collieries, who is here getting everything in shape for the winter season at the mines. The company has now about 15 cottages built at Bridgeend, all of which are occupied, and contracts have been let for the building of fifteen more. "It is going to be a fine little village," said Mr. Fergus recently. "We have fine water, electric lights, and good wide streets. No shacks have been built, and we are going to try to make it one of the most comfortable mining towns in this part of the west."

His Overalls on Fire

Perth, Sask.—Harry Dickey, of Perth, was badly burned recently by gasoline. He was working on a gasoline threshing outfit and was heating the engine with a torch when his overalls caught fire.

A separator man seeing the blaze grabbed what he thought was a pail of water and threw it over Harry. The pail contained gasoline. Harry is now confined to his room under the care of his father.

U. S. NAVAL REVIEW

Pride of Navy Passes Before the President in Greatest Review Under American Flag

New York.—Fresh from his cross-country tour of 15,000 miles during which he received ceremonial greetings which seem to indicate the early ratification of the treaties of peace and arbitration with Great Britain and France, President Taft, from the wing swept bridge of the historic little cruiser yacht, Mayflower, recently reviewed the mightiest line of fighting craft ever assembled under the American flag.

The president had indicated in all his speeches in advocacy of the ties of the treaty of peace that he entertained no doubt that war by convention could immediately be made a thing of the past. He declared that the treaties were a step in the right direction, that the armed camps of Europe were looking to the United States to lead in what might prove to be a great world movement toward the goal of peace, but that for a long time to come the suggestion of disarmament would have no force.

Mr. Taft let it be known that he would continue to urge upon congress the necessity of building at least two great super-dreadnoughts a year until the Panama canal is in operation. The canal, he declared, would double the efficiency of the navy and from that time on a battleship a year might suffice to keep the American navy in the forefront of the world's military powers.

Thousands of people joined with the president in paying tribute to the five scores of vessels which lay at anchor in the Hudson. Twenty-four first-class battleships were in line, grimly gray in their preparation for war and with ammunition rooms fairly bursting under the weight of millions of pounds of powder and shell.

Surrounding this brilliant column, sailed in its self reliance, were armored cruisers, but little inferior in weight and power to their more formidable sisters of battle class, scout cruisers, slender but fast motor like destroyers, green swamps of the sea, little little torpedo boats that seemed spider like in their stealth, submarines, barely visible above the water line, and the rank and file of auxiliary vessels that serve as tenders to the fleet. There were 99 in all, the original plan of having 102 ships in line having been curtailed by the absence of three torpedo boats.

As if the exhibition of preparedness and power pictured in the anchored armada were not all sufficient, twenty-two of the battleships toward the close, picked up their anchors, turned in the teeth of the gale and went proudly out to sea. The president watched the passing pageant in impressed silence. As the big fighting ships steamed by with the full crested waves, with huge clouds of black smoke swirling from their funnels, the sun was bearing its setting, and they spoke with crashing guns the last of a long series of salutes which had begun with the early morning and had been almost incessant throughout the day.

C. P. R. Helps Threshers

Regina, Sask.—The Department of agriculture has received word from W. B. Langdon, by the effect that the C. P. R. will make a special half rate on threshing trains coming from Manitoba into Saskatchewan provided they are accompanied by not less than ten men, while for the men the company are making a cut rate of five cents a mile for ten men.

It is hoped that these concessions will result in many threshing outfits moving into this province backward stage of threshing operations.

FOR HOUSEHOLD ACCIDENTS

Zam-Buk is so Very Useful.

Read How Beneficial It Proved in This Case

Mrs. H. Sawyer, of Keene, Ont., writes:—"My husband is engaged on a farm, and one day, while chopping wood the top of the axe broke and fell upon his foot, cutting a nasty gash. The wound was so bad that we first thought that we would have to get a doctor, but we finally decided to treat the cut with Zam-Buk."

"Well, the Zam-Buk treatment proved a great success. It not only eased the pain but it prevented inflammation, and right from first applying Zam-Buk, the cut began to heal. It is now completely healed and my husband says he would not be without a box of Zam-Buk in the house, for we are so sure it saved us a great deal of expense."

Over and over again Zam-Buk has been proved to be the worker's best remedy. As soon as applied to a cut, a burn, a scald, or any skin injury, it relieves the pain and it sets an healing. It also prevents blood-poisoning or inflammation. It is a sure cure, too, for eczema, piles, ulcers, old wounds, bad leg ulcers, scalds, sunburn, festering running sores, eruptions, cold sores, chapped hands, etc. It's absolute purity, also, makes it the ideal balm for babies.

Zam-Buk Soap should be used along with the balm for washing all sore places. The soap will be found excellent for baby's bath, even where the balm is not being used.

All druggists and stores sell Zam-Buk at 5c a box, and Zam-Buk Soap at 25c a tablet, or post free from Zam-Buk Co., Toronto, upon receipt of price. Refuse harmful substitutes.

THE SUNDAY SCHOOL

LESSON VII.—FOURTH QUARTER, FOR NOV. 12, 1911

Text of the Lesson, Dan. v, 17-28. Memory Verses, 25-28—Golden Text, Eccles. xii, 14—Commentary Prepared by Rev. D. M. Stearns.

We are glad to have another lesson in Daniel, but it may be so long before we return to this book that it may be wise to glance at the book as a whole and outline its contents. It is the book of the times of the gentiles, and the time of the kingdom shall come when Daniel's city and people shall have their transgressions forgiven and shall enjoy the everlasting righteousness of chapter ix, 24. Any one can make an outline to suit himself, but the following, by chapters, may suggest a better one. I. Daniel's purpose of heart. II. The stone kingdom to fill the earth. III. The image worship, or the furnace. IV. The prison humiliated. V. The judgment on the blasphemers. VI. The triumph of God over His enemies. VII. The everlasting kingdom (parallel with chapter ix). VIII. Kingdoms friendly to Daniel's people. IX. Daniel's prayer and Gabriel's prediction of the seventy-sevens. X. Gabriel's second visit to Daniel. XI. Antichrist and his overthrow. XII. The kingdom to follow the resurrection of the just and the great tribulation. From even such an outline as this we see that the portion assigned for today's lesson is just the story of a simple leader of the devil's followers, whose end is surely forfeited in Ps. ix, 17; Matt. xxv, 41. It is a part of the great kingdom story of the book and must be considered in that connection as well as in its personal relation to individuals. It is the record of a drunken revel with which God interfered suddenly. It was a great gathering of great people in the eyes of the world, and doubtless those who felt as much honored as Haman did (Es. v, 5) when invited to the banquet of Queen Esther. The golden and silver vessels which had been taken from the temple of the Lord at Jerusalem were used as common drinking vessels, and they praised all gods except the living and true God.

In the midst of their drunken revelry a very strange and startling thing happens, for the fingers of a man's hand are seen writing words upon the plaster of the wall of the king's palace, and the king saw the part of the hand that wrote (verse 5). The king is filled with trembling and dismay, and all his wise men are called to interpret the words, but they could not read the writing (verse 6). This is the third time in this book that the wisdom of this world failed to understand the things of God (cf. vi, 27). How true it is that "the things of God knoweth no man, but the spirit of God" (1 Cor. ii, 10). All the wisdom of this world is utterly at fault concerning things heavenly. The opinions and surmises of people are not worth the breath that utters them when they venture upon the things of God. There are unseen agents all about us, and while the hand of the Lord is against His enemies it is upon all them for good that seek Him (Ez. vi, 22). The green leaves of the vine and the fruiting event, and coming into the banquet house and seeing the king greatly troubled and his lords astonished and the wise men helpless, the remembered Daniel and his marvelous skill in interpreting hard things in the days of Nebuchadnezzar, and she said, "Let Daniel be called and he will show the interpretation" (verses 14-15). When Daniel came into the presence of the king he was told of the inability of all the wise men to interpret the writing and was offered a great reward or great rewards if he would do it (verses 17-18). Dreading the proffered rewards, Daniel said, "Yet I will read the writing unto the king and make known to him the interpretation" (verse 19). We think of Abraham's rejection of the offer of the king of Sodom, of Elshu's rejection of Naaman's gifts and of Peter's remark that the things of God cannot be purchased with money. The refusal of the man of God to go home with Jerusalem or accept his gifts (1 Kings iii) is also on the same line.

Daniel then reminded the king of what the most high God had done for his father and how He had humbled him and added fearfully and searchingly, "Thou hast not humbled thine heart though thou knowest all this, but hast lifted up thyself against the Lord of heaven. . . . and the God in whose hand thy breath is and whose are all thy ways hast thou not glorified" (verses 22, 23). What a searching word for multitudes of people! The time of all earthly kingdoms is fixed. Only the kingdom of God is eternal. The Lord is a God of knowledge, and by Him atoms are weighed (1 Sam. ii, 8). Our days are numbered, our thoughts and actions weighed, and the life story in a mortal body will be finished some day. However much riches and honor may have been obtained, the question comes, "Then whose shall those things be?" As to the confusion of those who rebel against God, let the words of the Lord Jesus in Luke xvi, 26; Mark ix, 43-45 tell all who desire to know. See also Rev. ix, 15.

Babylon may perish, but Daniel and all who, like him, do the will of God shall continue and abide forever. What shall it profit though a man gain the world and all its pleasures if his soul is not saved?

Having two love affairs at the same time is as much trouble as twice.

FAMOUS PEOPLE

BY FANNIE M. LOTHROP

MRS. GEORGE GOULD
The Home-Life at Georgian Court.

One of the most magnificent country houses in the United States is Georgian Court, at the head of the beautiful lake Carasajio, among the tall, straight kingly pines of Lakewood, N.J., and the wife and mother who makes this palace a home is Mrs. George J. Gould, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Kingdon, formerly of Toronto.

The beautiful Edith Kingdon, after completing her education in England, adopted the stage as a career, and her talent, grace, charm and presence were winning recognition when in 1886 she was married to George Gould, the millionaire railway owner, and son of Jay Gould, at one time America's leading financier. Mrs. Gould soon became one of the most popular of the younger society women of the country and a leader in the world of fashion. Beautiful is the house in which she lives, but far more beautiful is the atmosphere of love, sweetness and companionship that fills the home with sunshine and happiness. It is said that wealth often makes fair favorites of fortune forgetful of the privileges and joys of motherhood, sacrificing on the altar of fashion, time and attention that should be paid to loving watchfulness of the welfare of the children; but Mrs. Gould is a model mother to her six children, a devoted companion, confident and friend.

The Goulds are practically the only members of the ultra-fashionable set who reside in the country the year round. Georgian Court, built of light gray brick and terra cotta in the style of the French Renaissance, lies in beautiful grounds rendered exclusive by a high fence of wrought iron with bases and interspersed posts of gray stone to match the house. The stables, harmonizing in architecture with the mansion itself, are stocked with horses of every description for the family and guests.

Over the stables is the theatre, a dainty, bijou play-house, complete in every detail, furnished in dark red and gold and seating about one hundred and twenty-five. The Casino, devoted primarily to sport, has a special race-track, a great plunge swimming tank, courts for all games, and about forty bed-rooms and half as many bath-rooms, to be used when a large house-party overtakes the hospitality of the mansion. The Sunken Garden, which is sixty feet in width and 120 in length, is floored and walled with flawless marble, and fine sculpture peeping from a dark background of evergreen shrubs and bushes, is reflected in the clear waters of a lagoon. Near by, too, is the wonderful electric fountain, sixty feet in diameter, of white marble, the centre piece consisting of a colossal Nautilus shell of bronze, forming a canister on which stands the heroic statue of a man driving a pair of purest marble sea-horses.

Province Wins Its Big Suit

Justice Stewart handed down last week his decision in the suit of the province of Alberta against the Alberta & Great Waterways Company, the Royal Bank of Canada, the Union Bank of Canada, the Merchants Bank of Canada, and the Canada West Construction Co. for $7,400,000, proceeds from the sale of A. and G. W. bonds guaranteed by the province. The decision is in favor of the government of Alberta.

The judgement covers twelve sheets of typewritten paper and contains about 5000 words. It takes up the argument of the counsel for and against, and in the decision declares the money now held by the courts and on deposit in the Royal Bank should be turned over to the province.

There is $6,000,000 held by the Royal Bank.

An appeal will be carried to the Supreme court of Alberta en banc by the defendants.

It is pointed out that the Royal Bank does not lose the money as the suit was not against them but against the Alberta and Great Waterways Railway company and they merely held the money on deposit.

Lath Production

Despite the use of metal lath and patent methods of interior finish, wooden lath production amounted to eight hundred and fifty-two million pieces, worth one million, nine hundred and forty-three thousand dollars in Canada during 1910. This information has been obtained from statistics compiled by the Dominion Forestry Branch which show that nearly thirty million more lath were produced in 1910 than in the year before, but that owing to a decrease in the price per thousand, the total value of the industry was thirty-five thousand dollars less. Two-fifths of the total was cut in Ontario, which province increased its 1909 production by fifty-seven million or nearly twenty per cent. New Brunswick, the second province in importance, increased its proportion of the total from one fifth to one quarter, by cutting sixty-two million more than last year. The production of laths in Quebec and British Columbia during 1910 was considerably more than in 1909, amounting with Ontario and New Brunswick to ninety-four per cent of the total. The remaining five provinces cut smaller amounts, and with the exception of Alberta, each showed a decrease from the amount produced in 1909. The average price of laths in 1910 was $2.28 per thousand or 16 cents less than in 1909. The price varied considerably between the different provinces, British Columbia laths being $1.66 per thousand, while in Prince Edward Island the price was $2.67.

An Innovation in Oil Heaters

The Perfection Smokeless Oil Heater, with its drums enameled in turquoise, is an ornament to any room, whether in the country or city home.

No home is quite complete without a Perfection Oil Heater. It is a necessity in the fall and spring, when it is too warm to start the regular heating apparatus, and too cool to be without heat. In the midst of winter it is often convenient as an auxiliary heater, as there are always some cold corners in a house.

The enameled heater always presents a nice appearance, as the enamel will not tarnish or burn off. It is not an "enamel paint," but it is the same as the enamel of your cooking utensils.

The Perfection is the most reliable and convenient portable heating device you can find. An automatically-locking flame spreader prevents turning the wick high enough to smoke.

The Fountain Head of Life Is The Stomach

A man who has a weak and impaired stomach and who does not properly digest his food will soon find that his blood has become weak and impoverished, and that his whole body is improperly and insufficiently nourished.

DR. PIERCE'S GOLDEN MEDICAL DISCOVERY makes the stomach strong, promotes the flow of digestive juices, restores the lost appetite, makes assimilation perfect, invigorates the liver and purifies and enriches the blood. It is the great blood-maker, flesh-builder and restorative nerve tonic. It makes men strong in body, active in mind and cool in judgment.

This "Discovery" is a pure, glyceric extract of American medical roots, absolutely free from alcohol and all injurious, habit-forming drugs. All its ingredients are printed on its wrappers. It has no relationship with secret nostrums. Its every ingredient is endorsed by the leaders in all the schools of medicine. Don't accept a secret nostrum as a substitute for this time-proven remedy of known composition. Ask your neighbors. They must know of many cures made by it during past 40 years, right in your own neighborhood. World's Dispensary Medical Association, Dr. R. V. Pierce, Pres., Buffalo, N. Y.

ARE YOU AS WELL AS A YEAR AGO?

DR. WILLIAMS' PINK PILLS POINT
THE WAY TO HEALTH AND STRENGTH

Ask yourself the important question whether you are as strong as you were a year ago, as bodily fit as you should be. Many a reader has to confess "No." Some weakening ailment has during the past year laid hold of the system, unfitting you for the duties of life and seriously clouding the outlook of the coming days. It may be rheumatism with its sharp twinges of pain, indigestion, headache, nervous debility, depression and lack of energy, or the pains and ailments which only common folk know. It is well to know that all these weakening disorders arise from an impoverished condition of the blood. Renew and enrich your blood and all your troubles will cease. This is a strong statement, but it is made on the testimony of thousands who once suffered, but who have gained health and strength by the aid of the new, rich blood supplied by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. We can quote thousands of cases similar to the following: Mr. Jos. Grandmaison is a young man, well known in the town of St. Jerome, Que. He says: "For a couple of years I began to find my strength failing, but did not dream that the trouble was serious. As I grew weaker I began to doctor, but it did not help me. The least exertion made by heart palpitate violently, my stomach seemed out of order and my whole system became so run down that I was finally forced to quit work. I had now been doctoring for almost six months and was very naturally growing discouraged. At this juncture I read of a case similar to mine, cured through the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and decided to try them. I took the Pills faithfully for about two months, gradually growing stronger and at the end of that time I was as well as any man could be. I shall always praise the medicine that raised me from despair to the blessing of good health."

Sold by medicine dealers everywhere or sent by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

quickly stops coughs, cures colds, heals the throat and lungs. 25 cents.

Before leaving Canada, Mr. Hamar Greenwood, Member of Parliament, British House of Commons, wrote to the Grand Trunk Railway System, in connection with his trip over their lines in Canada, and in which he says: "We especially enjoyed the journey from Edmonton to Winnipeg which we made on your system in the best equipped train I ever saw in my life. You have fixed a very high standard, if this train is the standard up to which you are working."

C.P.R. Largest Steel Rails Consumer

It is understood that the Canadian Pacific Railway is in the market for 50,000 tons of steel rails. This would seem to strengthen the statement that the Canadian Pacific is pushing its new Western lines to completion. Building, as it is now, nearly two miles of new track every working day in the year the C. P. R. is probably the largest consumer of steel rails on the continent.

Ten Rules For Beauty

No. 1. Keep in the open as much as possible. Breathe deeply and regularly while walking.

No. 2. Live on a diet of eggs, fruit, vegetables and milk as much as possible.

No. 3. Take a warm bath daily and a sweat bath once a week.

No. 4. Dress loosely and not too warmly; wear no heavy clothes or heavy hats.

No. 5. Go to bed early and get up early.

No. 6. Sleep in a dark room with windows open, and take from seven to eight hours sleep.

No. 7. Take one absolutely quiet day every two weeks, without reading, writing or visiting.

No. 8. Avoid worrying. Talk or hear no scandal.

No. 9. Marry, and be the best friend possible for you to be to your husband.

No. 10. Be temperate in all pleasures.

Remember: When these things become habits, you are far on the road to beauty, health and happiness.

Minard's Liniment Cures Distemper.

DODD'S KIDNEY PILLS

Thos. Giffin, of Peace River Landing, Tells how he Got Rid of His Rheumatism—Honestly earned popularity.

Cold Springs, Peace River Landing, Alta. (Special).—Just why Dodd's Kidney Pills retain their wonderful popularity is easily shown by a trip across the prairies. Every town, village and postoffice has at least one man or woman who is ready to tell of pains relieved and strength restored by the great Canadian Kidney Remedy. Let Thos. Giffin of this place add his statement to the hosts already published.

"When I came to this part of the country," says Mr. Giffin, "I was troubled with a bad back and Rheumatism in my shoulders and hips. I sent for six boxes of Dodd's Kidney Pills and they gave me relief at once. I also recommended them to my eldest son who was confined to his bed from Rheumatism."

"Now I know that Dodd's Kidney Pills are the best medicine for Rheumatism and the Kidneys. I recommend them to every person I hear complaining of not feeling well."

Dodd's Kidney Pills made their popularity by curing sick Kidneys. They keep their popularity by keeping on curing sick kidneys.

Synopsis of Coal Mining Regulations

COAL mining rights of the Dominion in Manitoba and Saskatchewan and Alberta, the Yukon Territory, the North-West Territories and British Columbia may be leased for a term of twenty-one years at an annual rental of $1 an acre. Not more than 2500 acres will be leased to one applicant.
Application for a lease must be made to the Agent or Sub-agent of the district in which the rights are situated.
In surveyed territory the land must be described by sections, or legal sub-divisions of sections and in unsurveyed territory the tract applied for shall be staked out.
Each application must be accompanied by a fee of $5 which will be refunded if the rights applied for are not available but not otherwise. A royalty shall be paid on the merchantable output of the mine at the rate of five cents per ton.
The person operating the mines shall furnish the Agent with sworn returns, monthly, accounting for the full quantity of merchantable coal mined and pay the royalty thereon. If he ceases mining rights are not being operated, such returns should be furnished at least once a year.
The lease will include the coal mining rights only but the lessee may be permitted to purchase whatever available surface rights may be considered necessary for the working of the mine at the rate of $10.00 an acre.
The Minister may reserve for an applicant the coal mining rights under 2,500 acres of contiguous lands for two years. Application for such right must be made to the Agent. Fee $100.00. An expenditure at the rate of $1 an acre per annum in prospecting by recognized methods, must be incurred.
For full information application should be made to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa, to any Agent or Sub-Agent of Dominion Lands.
W. W. CORY
Deputy Minister of the Interior

Synopsis of Canadian North West Land Regulations

ANY person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years old may homestead a quarter section of available Dominion land in Manitoba, Saskatchewan or Alberta.
